

Keep Brazos Beautiful

Jack and Dorothy Miller Memorial Scholarship

Keep Brazos Beautiful is offering the Jack and Dorothy Miller Memorial Scholarship. The scholarship serves to offer financial aid to local graduating high school seniors from Brazos County who have demonstrated a passion for the Keep Brazos Beautiful mission or are pursuing a field of study that will make a positive impact on the environment. Two (2) $1,000.00 and one (1) $500.00 scholarships will be awarded to local graduating high school seniors and can be used towards any accredited college or university. The scholarship recipient will be invited to the yearly Awards Luncheon.

Who May Apply:

Any graduating senior attending a high school in Brazos County.

Recipients of the Scholarship Must:

- be a resident of Brazos County
- be currently enrolled in a high school in Brazos County
- have a GPA of 3.0 or higher
- be accepted into an accredited college or university
- Provide a complete application packet (found on the second page)
